FLOWER BULB SPECIALISTS

SYOSSET, LONG ISLAND, NEW YORK

Phone WALnut 1-1197—Day and Night Service

We are not "JUST ANOTHER BULB DEALER"

When you buy from us you deal with experienced bulb men. Many members of our staff have devoted their life time to the growing and processing of flower bulbs and have thus gained an intimate knowledge of these crops that can be acquired through long practical experience.

Here on our Long Island farms we grow all the subjects that can be produced in this area and no one grows them any finer. The other stocks we list are imported from the most reliable of foreign growers.

Storage is also important, for bulbs are living plants and are influenced by every condition to which they are subjected. Our bulbs are stored under ideal temperatures in buildings ventilated with pure country air.

AFRICAN LILY

(AMORPHOPHALLUS RIVIERI)

This rare bulb produces an attractive palm-like growth that is very ornamental through the whole summer season. The flower, which is an enormous Calla-shaped blossom, appears while the bulbs are dormant in the spring.

Mammoth Flowering Bulbs - each $7.50; Doz. $8.00

Medium Size Bulbs - - - - each .50; Doz. 5.00

ARUM CORNUTUM

(MONARCH OF THE EAST)

Plant this rare bulb outside when the danger of frost is over. Your reward will be a summer plant with exotic palm-like foliage. When this foliage turns yellow or is blackened by frost, harvest the bulb and allow it to cure in a warm temperature until the new bud appears (approximately 4 to 6 weeks). The bulb can then be potted or left without soil (see illustration) during the flowering period. When the flowering is completed, cut off the blossom and store in a cool location until outdoor planting time.

AMARYLLIS FORMOSISSIMA

This improved form of the old Sprekelia produces large brilliant red Amaryllis-like flowers. Excellent pot plant as well as summer cut flowers. Rare.

AMARYLLIS

AMERICAN HYBRIDS

Amaryllis are one of our specialties and we grow a large stock here on our own farms. These northern grown bulbs are firmer and heavier than the southern stocks and hold up much better when exposed for counter sales.

For house culture the ease with which they can be flowered makes them the outstanding subject for this purpose and they also make a beautiful pot plant for florist use. The colors are mixed and range from pure white through the various pink shades to deep red.

HAEMANTHUS MULTIFLORUS

HAEMANTHUS MULTIFLORUS

Acclaimed by many experts as the most beautiful bulbous item, Haemanthus, the Blood Lily is easily grown either in the garden or as a house plant. The blossom, (see illustration) blood red in color, forms a perfect sphere six inches or more in diameter on a stem eight or more inches tall. The flower appears without foliage from six to eight weeks after planting either indoors in late winter or outdoors after spring frost danger is over. The blossom itself can be treated as a cut flower or allowed to remain on the bulb; in either event it will keep its beautiful shape and color for more than eight days. As the flower matures, the foliage appears out of the soil along side the flower stem and grows rapidly into a beautiful glossy leaved plant. The plant grows to a height of from 18" to 24" and keeps its beauty until frost. Haemanthus grown indoors should be planted outdoors during the summer months. The bulbs can be lifted in the fall and rested in a cool, dry place until replanting time. We urge all of our customers to try this showiest of all garden subjects.
